DR. LEO STILL REMEMBERED

SAD NEWS IS FORGOTTEN BY A SMILE

Watergate, impeachment proceedings, president's aids resignations, streaking on college campuses, shortage of oil, shortage of beans, shortage of paper, energy crisis, brush fires in Laredo, and kidnappings were sad news the world over. But at Martin students like Alex Escobedo and Thelma Garza, as well as teachers like Mr. Contreras still found time to enjoy the Beat of Life.

Mr. Gutierrez: Quick, Henry, grab those ugly creatures before they destroy us!

Nelda Sanchez: I am not an ugly creature! I am a simple girl trying to win another title.

Linda Garcia: I don't have extra arms or legs; that's just another Jr. Miss contestant behind me.

Lucy Karabanoff: And I am not an ugly creature either. I was volunteered to be the French maid in the Junior Class assembly.

Spirit of '76

The Bicentennial Class

This year's Sophomore Class has organized several pep rallies, dances, and won first place in the school Christmas food and clothing drive. Along with many fund-raising projects is the sale of class emblems. Miss Arabella Gonzalez is the class sponsor.

Portrait of a Godines

Since the mid 50's a Godines has been playing football at Martin. Not to be outdone by his older brothers, David had an excellent season. In the upper picture, Godines and his teammates listen to the speeches and see the pretty cheerleaders lead the students to several victory yells. In the center picture, Godines relaxes and lets the defense take care of the opposition. At the bottom, Godines gets ready to crash into the enemy line. "After breaking Burbank, we knew we could beat anybody."

Class of '77

Little Bitty Freshmen Biggest Class in School

They looked scared, frightened, and eager when they came to Martin for the first time. They were lost for a few days, but within two weeks, Freshman sponsor Mr. Eugene Crawford, organized the class. Dolores Saenz was chosen to lead the Fish in their class projects. Slowly but surely the Fish became part of Tigerland. They had very successful pep rallies, assemblies, a car wash, and several other projects. Over 800 Freshmen can't be wrong when they say they'll have the largest senior class in 1977!

Freshman Officers:

Belinda Hernandez, Laura Guzman, Susan Everett, Cordelia Sandoval, Guadalupe Lazcano, Sylvia Barrera, and President Dolores Saenz.

Basketball Team Has Rough Time

The Martin Tigers ended the season 13-15 as Coach Hector Chacon tried to bring his charges together by using every player. The Tigers were a young team, with most of the players coming back next year more experienced and seeking revenge. With no player over six feet tall, the Tigers did manage to beat good, tall teams like the United Longhorns. The district race was disastrous as the Tigers won few district games.

We split with cross-town rival Nixon, as we beat them in their gym and they defeated us in ours. The city's top scorer was Tomas Trevino and the third leading scorer was Ludovico Martinez. Both will return next year. At press time, the district team had not been announced, but Tomas and Ludovico were our two best prospects.

Track–Another Young Team

TRACK TEAM LOADED WITH SOPHOMORES AND FRESHMEN

Can a track team win consistently with a new coach? Can it make a good showing at district when most of the boys are freshmen and sophomores? Surprisingly enough, the Martin boys pulled in 12 points at the Border Olympics, which attracts powerhouses from all over the state. The only returnees are Felix Hernandez in the half-mile, David Godines in the pole vault, Meme Cruz in the 100 yard dash, and the rest are new to the program; this indicates a program which will build these young men into real competitors for the next two or three years.

WINNING ATTITUDE

The volleyball program is under the supervision of Mrs. Becky Solis. During the past few years she has had several powerhouses that won local and international contests. This year, she is faced with the problem of having girls with little or no experience. However, a winning attitude should once again provide Martin with a winning volleyball team.

Tigerettes Carry The Tradition Of The Tiger Spirit

TIGERETTES CARRY THE TRADITION OF THE TIGER SPIRIT. Under the capable and efficient leadership of Linda Garcia, Colonel of the 1974 Tigerettes, and Leticia Moran, Lt. Col. for this year, these pretty lasses boosted the mighty Tigers to many a victory throughout the year in all sports. Consisting of approximately 60 members, the Tigerettes travelled to all the district football games to support their team and attended all home football and basketball games. Clad in their red Spanish-styled uniforms, they participated in several events, including the Youth Parade and Washington's Birthday Parade in which they danced and marched their way into the hearts of all.

Majorettes for the year were Antonieta Cisneros, Margarita Martinez, and pretty and petite Edna Guzman was the head twirler. The Tigerettes were under the able supervision of Mrs. Terry Ramirez.

TALENTED CHEERLEADERS
BOOST THE TIGERS

This year was the first year that cheerleaders were elected by their respective classes. They attended several summer workshops at which they placed first in overall competition, as well as in precision and creativity. They also competed in the intra-city cheerleading competition in which they won 1st place in the high school division. Graceful and talented Nelda Sanchez was chosen head cheerleader and led the 1973-1974 cheerleaders through the many Tiger victories.

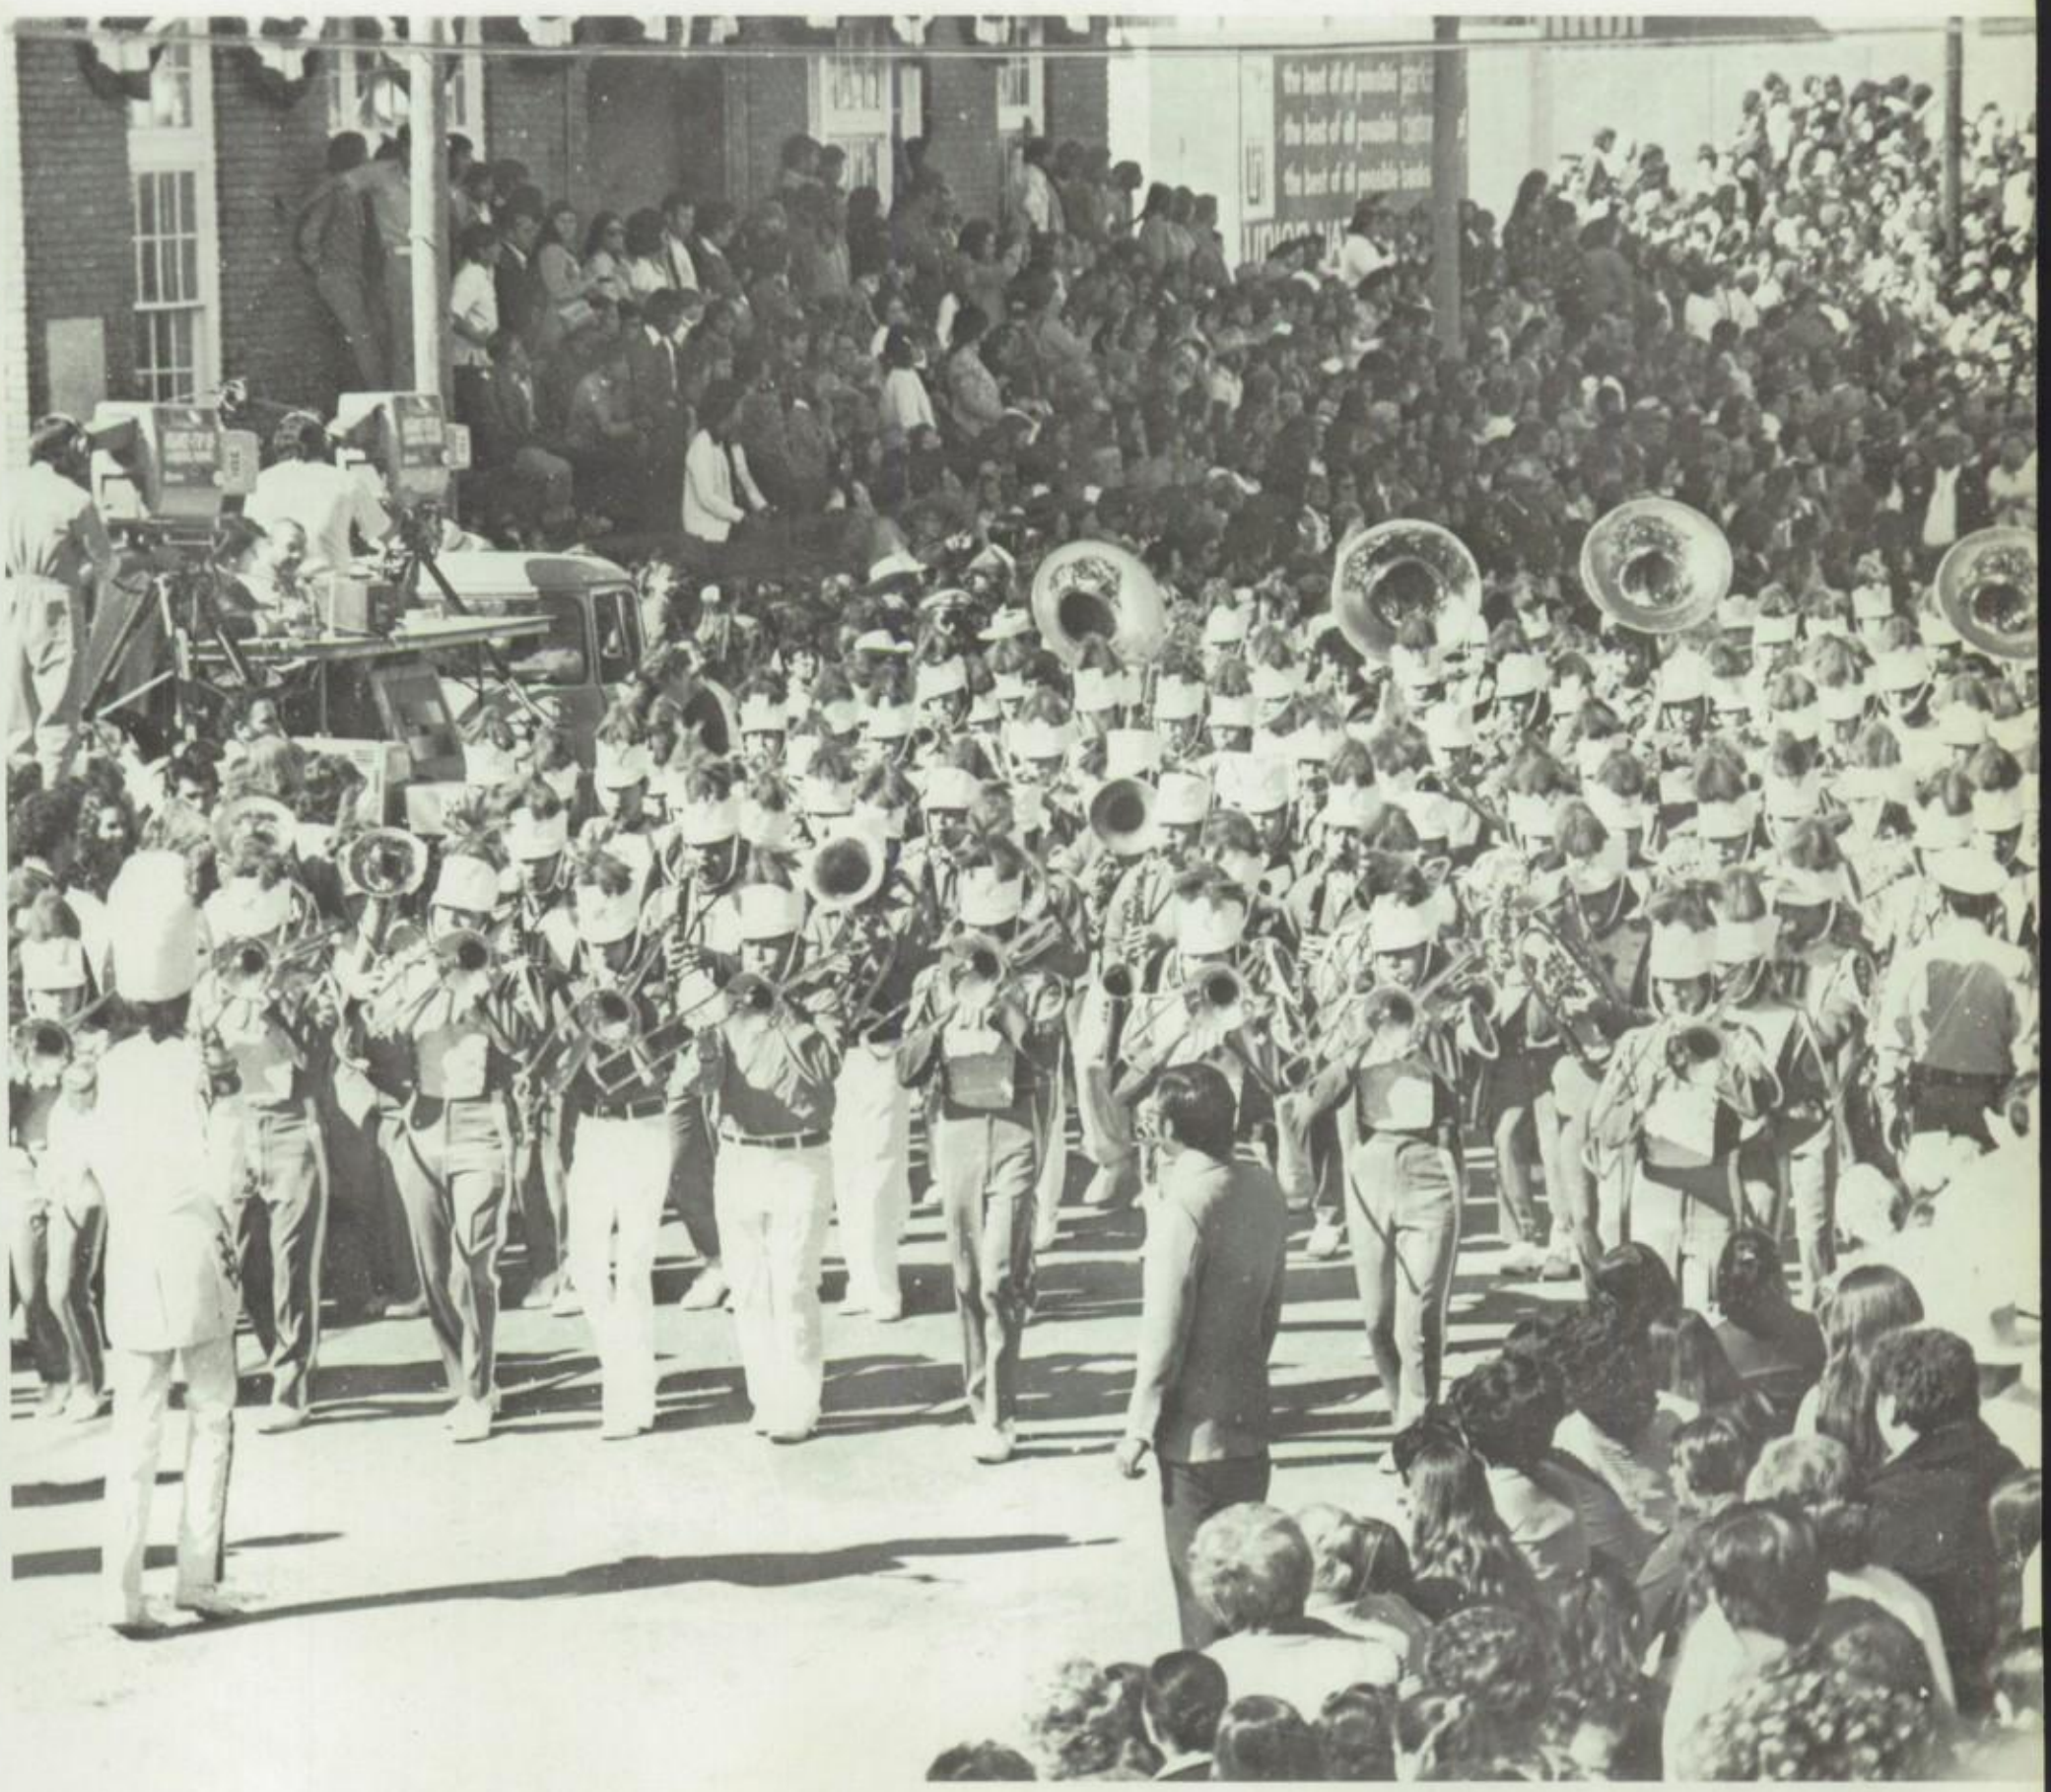
The Martin High

Tiger Band



The Symphonic Band

The Martin Band, under the baton of Mr. Roberto Botello, was very active this year. The bandsmen started out the year with summer band practice. The band provided the musical spirit at all pep rallies. It practiced many hours to give first-class performances during the half-time shows at the football games, and it performed in different San Antonio stadiums for the district football games, even playing at a very wet Alamo Stadium when the Tigers defeated Brack.

The band gave several concerts during the year, and it marched in several parades. In Robstown, the band received 1st division rating in marching; for concert, the band was divided into two groups—the symphonic band with 84 students and the concert band with 69 students. The symphonic band received 1st division rating in concert and 2nd in sight-reading. Bandsmen won over 50 medals in solo and ensemble competition; nine students placed in district, six in region, and one in area and state.

The Band Parents' Organization helped the band during the school year, and it provided the band with a banquet at the end of the school year. Next year, the Pride of Laredo will have a new look as new uniforms have been ordered.

Jonathan Livingston Seagull concerns a young seagull's search for perfection. It closely resembles man's odessy through time in quest of meaning, love, and perfection. Jonathan represents that part of man called a free spirit, which many strive for, but few possess.

Other activities include individual speech contests and an appearance before Laredo Civic Clubs.

Chapter 46

At every meeting, the officers illustrate the various symbols of the chapter emblem. The business meetings are followed according to Roberts' Rules of Parliamentary procedure to the letter. After the meetings, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews offer a carne asada or guisado for the members. To raise money, the club does welding jobs for various people and business establishments in town. With the money, the club has carne asadas, buys pages for the yearbook, offers scholarships, as well as charitable donations. At the District Meet, competing in welding, this chapter has won first place every year. VICA's main goals are to encourage leadership in industry and to help young people find a place in the working world.

Officers: Armando Garcia, Sgt. at Arms: Lorenzo Moncivas, Parl.; Adrian Briseno, Rep.; Ruben Teniente, Pres.; Joaquin Zapico, Vice-pres.; Gerardo Vasquez, Trea.; Ricardo Arredondo, Sec.

Martin hopes a repeat of last year's performance in Slide Rule, where it swept 1, 2, 3 in UIL. With the majority of contestants returning, Martin will have a very good chance of defending its title in Slide Rule and improving in Number Sense.

Middle Row: Mr. Humberto Trevino, Maria Paredes, Hortencia Mendoza, Carmen Seibert, Mary Ann Camacho, Eliza Guzman. Leticia Garcia. Our City

Mr. Raul Garcia and his DE students work at the pop corn stand during a football game. Elsa Chavez and other students worked hard throughout the season. These students, as well as many more Martin students will be the business and community leaders of tomorrow. We hope that they will support our Martin projects as faithfully as the businessmen and business establishments that bought ads in the following pages to make the '74 yearbook a successful project.

To our city and those who helped us—a great big THANK YOU from the administration, faculty, students, and the LA PITAHAYA yearbook staff.

Colonel A. O. Hein has seen over 8,000 students graduate from Martin High School; he has enjoyed meeting them and making new friends. As ROTC instructor, assistant principal, and principal, he has worked 100% for the betterment of Martin High School. He is now retiring, but thousands of ex-Martinites appreciate the work of this dedicated man—a true friend of the student and the teacher.
